

Cultural Connections Name: _____

Portage County has strong ties to its different cultures. They can be seen in art, churches, festivals, signs, and even parks. One of the easiest ways to see the differences are in food. Look at the examples try to guess which culture or cuisine they came from.

Paczki are filled donuts, usually eaten around Easter.		ONARWY Norway Norwegian
Lefse is a soft flatbread, usually made with potatoes.		YTIAL
Pho is a soup dish with broth, rice noodles, herbs, and meat.		PDOLAN
Brats are a sausage made from pork.		AEMCNRAI NDIIAN
Pizza is everywhere, but Polito's and Portesi make some of the best.		EMXCIO
Tamales are made with meat in a corn-based dough, wrapped in corn husks.		MITVENA
The Three Sisters: corn, pumpkins, and beans, can be made into a stew.		NMYGARE